

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE wedding of Miss Elise Winston Godkin, eldest daughter of Mr. John T. Godkin, to Mr. Charles Augustus Pailton, of Portland, Ore., was celebrated yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the Grace Street Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Jere Witherspoon, the pastor, officiating. A reception in the Godkin home, No. 607 West Grace Street, was given immediately after the ceremony. The bride came in with her father, Mr. J. T. Godkin. She wore a duchess lace trimmed with old point, over white satin, diamond ornaments, a tulle veil, carried a large bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Frank Crutchfield, dressed in white messaline, with a garniture of Irish point lace and a white chiffon hat. Her flowers were white roses.

A pretty group of bridesmaids included Misses Emma Perkins, Loretta Winston, Edith Spratley and Sue Wright. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Friend Darracott, the bride's cousin. Both maid of honor and bridesmaids were smartly attired in embroidered pink mull over taffeta and lace trimmed pink chiffon hats. They held arm bouquets of pink carnations.

Mr. Albert Pailton, of Townley, Mo., brother of the groom, was best man, and the groomsmen Messrs. James P. Watson, J. Kent Hawley, Robert K. Alsop, Arthur W. Godkin, John Tate Godkin, Jr., and Frank Crutchfield. Pink and white carnations and palms were artistically used in house and drawing room adornment. The reception, chandeliers were wreathed with asparagus fern and myriads of candles furnished the illumination. Elegant wedding gifts were displayed, and refreshments were served during reception hours. Mr. and Mrs. Pailton left afterward for their future home in Portland, Ore., via Washington, New York, Boston and the Canadian cities.

Out-of-town guests to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Raymond, Gerard, Kansas, and Mr. Albert Pailton, of Townley, Mo.

Harris-Anderson.
An event of interest to Richmond and Virginia was celebrated October 7th, at 6:30 P. M., in the Second Presbyterian Church, of Jonesboro, Tenn., when Miss Margaret Lena Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Eva M. Anderson and the late S. H. Anderson, of Jonesboro, was married to Mr. Nathan Claybrook Harris, son of the late N. C. Harris, of Fredericksburg, Louisiana, and Mrs. R. P. Harris, of Bristol, Va. The Rev. J. P. Mason, uncle of the bride, officiated.

The church was handsomely decorated with mountain laurel, pink and white flowers and palms. Miss Patton, of Jonesboro, played the wedding marches. Two solos, while guests were assembling, were rendered by Mrs. S. S. Kirkpatrick, "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Without Thee."

The attendants were the maid of honor, Miss Ellen Anderson, sister of the bride; the best man, Mr. J. T. Howard, Pulaski, Va.; the bridesmaids, Miss Belle Harris and Miss Irene Lafitte, Bristol; the groomsmen, Messrs. B. S. Gore and J. M. McLaughlin, of Jonesboro, Tenn.; J. H. Anderson and S. S. Kirkpatrick, Jonesboro.

The bride came in with her maid of honor. She wore an empire gown of white liberty satin, a tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower of bride roses.

The maid of honor was in pink silk, the bridesmaids in white. Their arm bouquets were of pink roses.

A reception after the church rehearsal Tuesday morning was given the bridal party and a few friends in the home of Miss Lena Mason, aunt of the bride. A recipe shower was tendered Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. S. Hickkey.

Many lovely wedding gifts were received. Richmond and Norfolk will be included in the bridal trip. Mr. and Mrs. Harris returning to their home in Bristol by way of Asheville, N. C.
